Pressing Forward with Hope, Faith and Love

Hebrews 12:1 states, “Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight... and run with endurance the race that is set before us.”

As people of faith, we bring our dreams and openness of heart to love God and one another. We come together to share the hope that God is with us, guiding us through every season of life. We also gather at this time of year to celebrate our diversity by serving in ministry together and reflecting upon the dream of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. As his ideals of justice, freedom and the belief that all are created equal in the eyes of God are biblical and noble principles.

We share Dr. King’s dream of a day when people from all races and nations, even the offspring of the enslaved and former slave owners, can sit at a table like brothers and sisters and find ways of transforming their differences into uniting assets. But, as we reflect upon Dr. King’s dream, let us ask, “What is our dream?”

For this New Year, we can dream of moving forward together. Dreaming that one day soon, our neighbors near and far, will start living as God’s beloved community. Otherwise, Dr. King’s dream will be just that... a dream.

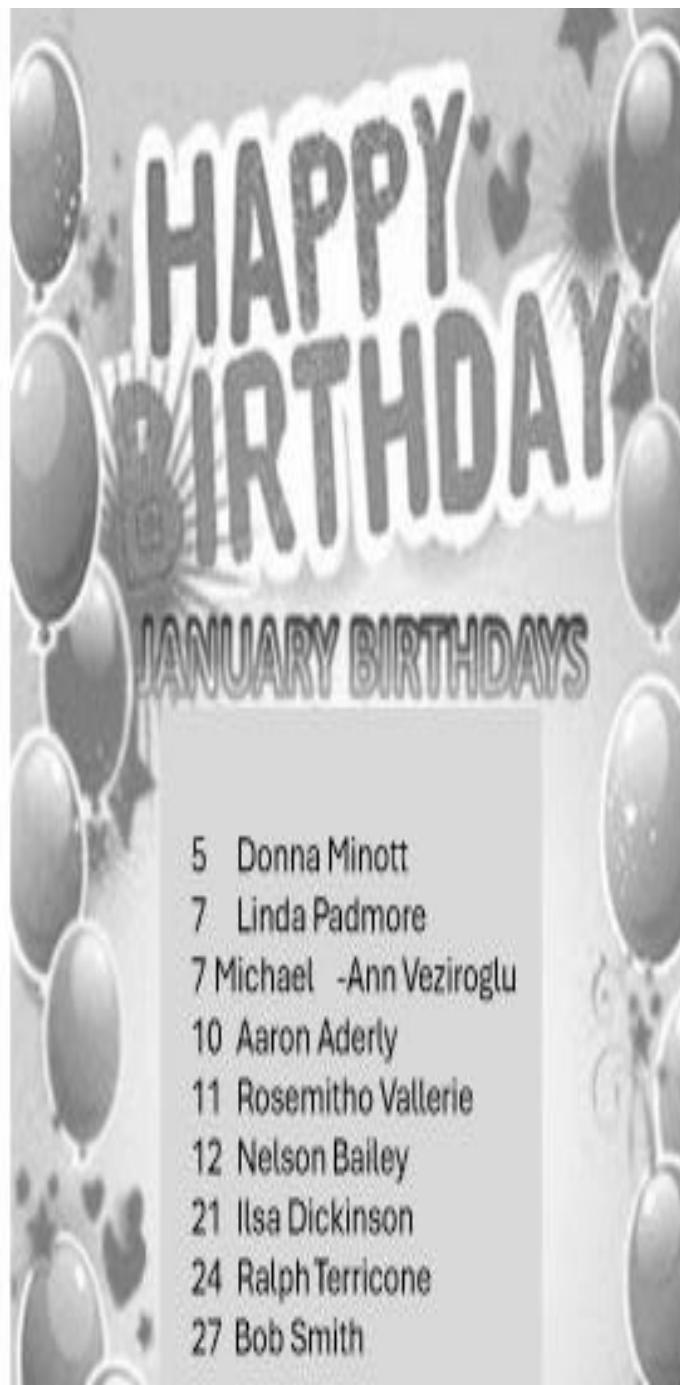

In the poetic refrain, “I Have a Dream,” we hear a call for us to remember that in the real world, injustices abound. But our faith calls upon us to hope for a better world, where all are not seen by our privileges, but by our daily acts of love. This refrain reminds us that we are led by the Spirit of God who guides us towards our purpose. In that, the Holy Spirit opens us up to an unpredictable, exciting, life-giving, journey filled with new possibilities.

And so, let us move forward together in hope, faith, and love by worshipping God on a regular basis. Let us also continue advocating peace and justice for every neighbor. And let us shine the Light of Christ in our daily lives by supporting those in most need, being in fellowship with one another, and offering a portion of our talents, treasure and time towards the church’s ministry. May it be so. Amen.

With Christ’s Love,
Pastor Sheila

UNION GOES CHRISTMAS CAROLING!

Justice and Peace News

As a PEACE church congregation, Union is united with others by our common desire to make Palm Beach County a better place to live, work and do business.

The PEACE research phase is now ongoing, and groups are already busy addressing community issues related to affordable housing, mental health and immigration in Palm Beach County. This phase culminates each year with a major public meeting known as the Nehemiah Action Assembly. Last year, PEACE showed their strength by having 1,200 individuals at this meeting.

This year we hope to have 1,600 people in attendance to hear local officials respond to, negotiate and make commitments on the issues we have been researching and addressing. However, to make that happen, we are encouraged to be intentional in our approach.

As such, Union's Peace Team members will be meeting on Sunday, January 25, 2026, at 11:45am to develop a plan on how to invite our church family, neighbors and friends to the Nehemiah Action Assembly on March 24, 2026. At this meeting, Megan Sease from PEACE will be joining us and guiding us through this process. Please see Paula Dorhout if you have any questions.
